MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OF THE DAY.

To Sheep farmers and the Public in general.

P. G. Galbraith's Phenyline & Wetzens Sheep Dip Salve

The great reputation these specifics have enjoyed in England on account of their extraordinary success in all cases where they have been applied has induced the proprietor to introduce them in this market on account of the immense sheep farming interest of this country, and the numerous farmers to obviate in future the enormous losses they sustain yearly, not only in the Clyde disease of the sheep, but also, as frequently happens, the loss of the entire flock. It is a proved fact, that one dose will be only quite a sufficient feeling sufficient of the mouth. The following is a short account of the manner in which these specifics may be applied—

In Sheep—To cure maggots, foul smell, lice, tick.

In Horses—Canker in the foot, scratches, all dangerous wounds or sores, cracked heels, mange, grease, &c.

Cows; distemper, on Salt disease of the heads.

For wounds or bruises resulting from accident and for all general Veterinary purposes this remedy is unequalled. It has been used by me extensively on many of the Hospitals in England for cattle Cancer. Tetch &c is also used for purifying blood, and has been found a most certain and speedy remedy for the above complaints.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The Villa Mercedes is prominent shortly the spectacle of an execution on the unfortunate Freeman, named Fersler, convicted on his own confession of having murdered Sra. Lasala, a native estanciera. The circumstances of the case are very extraordinary. The culprit had been a soldier in the Peverch army, and was one of those enrolled by Major Acasubi for the Argentine service. Only a few months ago he arrived in Buenos Ayres, and speedily deserted along with many others. When wandering about the camp he met his victim, who compassionately took him to his house as he gave him employment. Suddenly one day attacking his benefactor unawares he severed his skull with a hatchet and then cut his throat, as he considered he put him out of pain. He did not rob the house, nor even deny his crime, may, when asked his motive, and what led him to commit it, he declared that "Acasubi had deceive.d him with false promises, and he therefore resolved to kill some Argentine for revenge, for which he felt no punishment." When out further difficulty he was condemned to die, and our countrymen of the district applaud the sentence.

But we are not clear that this is just. In England, no matter how conclusive the evidence, it is necessary to find the corpus delicti, or remains of the victim, besides some motive for the crime. In a person merely disappear, no trial for murder can be entertained, and if no motive can be proved the assassin is judged a lunatic, and accordingly imprisoned in an asylum.

Fersler had an interest in slaying Sra. Sanchez, but had no incentive of robbery, no revenge for a personal quarrel—in fine, no motive when could urge any man of sound wits and unbridled passion to commit barbarous and brutal a crime. If he meant merely to gratify a strange savage instinct he did but what the first native met in Buenos Ayres, instead of his b. enefactor? It is said that he had seven of the Lasala family, as if to have contracted a battalion of assassins. These devoted men who shed their blood at Costel Filardo were rather of a religious tendency, to the extreme opposite to such dastardly crimes as this. In a word, we must conclude that Tessler had lost his reason when he murdered his best friend, without motive, and gave his self up to death without a defence. It is, then, a barbarity to execute this wretch, who seems all his misery to the false representations of our recruiting officer at Paris.

But if we cannot save this victim of unsound judgment, it is due to our own character, and to the cause of Humanity, to call attention to the inhuman principles of our colleagues in suspecting capital punishment. The barbeat doctrine of society is to forfeit the life of him who sheds human blood. The press of this city, in which assassinations resound in our ears almost daily, tolerate some abhorred theories of Victor Hugo, and other infidel philosophers, who reject that capital punishment is legislative murder. Unhappily there are out threats in the camp who have despatched their dozen victims, and yet, so as not unmolested. How many a murderer is enrolled in the army, and suffered to escape, one, two, three, times. Ser. Cancellaros and the Saenz Valiente can mention such cases, and the neighbors of San Isidr know a man living there who has killed "three already!" This impunity for crime makes it more frequent, as in the case of the artillery officer, who shot a man, the other day, in cold blood and is now at liberty!!

If law and order are not empty terms, and life possess some other protection than a revolver, it were well to execute every ruffian who for money or revenge attempts his neighbors life. We have no patience with sophists who cry down capital punishment when inflicted on a cold blooded assassin, and cry so the mass wholesale massacre of political offenders.

In the same manner as we demand summary justice on the murderer of Sra. Mary Wood and his peers, (who has just been arrested through the efforts of the Irishmen), we shall be free of regret over the unfortunate victims of Las Playas. The Cordoba infantry, forcibly enrolled by Peñaloza, were retiring from the field, when Sandes intercepted their retreat: the latter allowed general of their arms, for the Chacho had fled and the battle terminated; but Sandes commenced to mow them down, and 3 to were but rescued by the Buenos ayrean could stop the sacrifice and rescue the remaining 400.

Will it be believed that the native press of Buenos Ayres chuntes this massacre under the light holocaust; and in the next column condemns the execution of assassins. We were frustrated in our efforts to have the murderer of poor Denby in Guarda Monte, arrested: we do not even dare to hope that the butcher of Kirby and Devere will be punished with death, as the only thing that should be shown on the battle field to a fallen foe, is extended to the hero of the knife or pistol. Who murders a man for a dollar is justly hung and rich. The Argentine republic will be a prey to disorder and assassination until we inaugurate an era of clemency in politics and inflict capital punishment on those who imitate the murderer Cain.

DR. BROUGNES AND THE FRONTIERS.

Continued.

The immigration agents with whom the National Government treat, should stipulate as follows

To transport all immigrants from Europe to the frontier colonies in question at a sum not exceeding 60 pyts each.

To grant to each of the 1 emigrants, by lot, a suerte of chacra, or small farm of twenty squares square, also one square league of land for the public pasture and 2 cows and 1 bull.

To lend to each immigrant family 60 cats to make a house, 40 dols. to buy seeds, &c., 5 barrels of flour for the use of the colonists, 2 ploughs and harrows, 30 cows, 100 sheep, and 4 horses for the public use of the colony.

All these advances should be repaid to the agents in two years with 6 per cent. interest, and the sum total of which should be fixed at 1000 dollars not including land.

The land should be the exclusive property of the colony, but without power to sell or dispose of same until the debt is paid, and the colony being obliged to cultivate each year at least five squares. All the produce of the lands, &c., shall be the exclusive property of the colony, and under the manager of Government or other control.

The increase of animals shall belong one half to the agent and the other to the colony.

Upon the Government granting an immigration or colonial contract to any party, such party should deposit 40,000 pyts. as good security to that amount.

All expenses incurred in bringing out the immigrants, both from Europe and Montevideo, to be borne by the immigration agents.

Each immigrant family should consist of five persons, and for the purpose of carrying out this arrangement, two married couples may join and make within the meaning of this article one immigrant family.

All questions or disputes which may arise between the agents and others in the colony shall be decided by the Judge and in the colony shall be determined by the Juez de Paz of the colony. The Government shall see that the strictest neutrality on the contending parties are duly carried out. The Government shall introduce a law for the purpose of facilitating mixed marriages.

The Government of Buenos Ayres shall encourage an agricultural and stock immigration society shall be formed for the purpose of fomenting immigration and colonies to the interior.

The author, in support of the above scheme for colonizing the frontier, states that Bulgo ria, who is chief of the Santa Fe frontier of Cordoba, and who has lived for over twenty years in the midst of the Indians, has supplied him with some valuable facts and data respecting the savages. According to what Colonel Baigorria states, the Pampa Indians have every disposition to agricultural cultivation, and would embrace it if there was any security afforded them against the inroads of the warlike tribes. Colonel Baigorria asserts that the conquest of the Chaco can only be effected by pacific and agricultural measures.

The Governor Mitre and his Ministers are grossly deceived if they think they will e vilize the gran chaco by the external nation of the race. Prudence, moderation and kindness will do more than all the soldiers and artillery of the Republic.

The author, Dn. Brougnes, remarks, that owing to the scandalous bad faith practised by the Governments of Corrientes and Paraguay towards the Argentine Confederation, established in 1855 and 1856, the credit of these countries has been much impaired in Europe. The contract of Gov. Pujol in Corrientes was such a flagrant violation of his contract that no Europeans aware of the circumstances would put faith in the promises of any of the rulers of these countries. Of the 10 families established in Santa Ana in 1856, 27 were ruined in 1861, the Governor of Corrientes having laboured successfully for the annihilation of the colony.

We commend this valuable little book of Dr. Brougnes to the careful perusal of all who have interests at stake in the country on the frontier. The fugitious conduct of an principled men has created negatory ma y of the author's undertakings. We trust President Mitre will soon put a stop to the last, and see that the Governors of the frontiers are made to fulfill their engagements.

The Medical Board advertises a Concurso to come off on the 20th inst. for election of a Managing Physician, with a annual salary. The salary is 4,000 dollars per month, and we expect Dr Martin Garcia will be a foremost candidate

The schoolmaster of the Socorro invites his friends to the pleasing ceremony of first examination of his pupils at 10 a.m. to-day

We have a repetition of the complaints against our Post-master-General, concerning the mails of La Paz Our friends in that remote locality state that their correspondence is sent to Paraná, where it suffers quarantine for an indefinite period. If made up in a Concordia mail it could go by first steamer to La Paz

The agent of Mr Colton, the world-renowned map-engraver, made us a pleasing visit yesterday. He is a Mr Hammondi, 6 feet by 4, mounted on canvas, and varnished. It is illuminated with views of the principal capitals, and possesses valuable tables of references. The delineation of the various countries of the earth is most accurate, and the whole, flourishing as mural and ornamental could find place in an office or library. Complete sets are on sale at Mr tone's, 81, Calle Cuyo

Our distinguished scientific literary friend, Dr Hutchinson, British Consul at Rosario, is about to pay us a visit in 10 or 15 days hence. He has concluded his duties as Commissioner to the Exhibition of La Plata, divided into 35 shares

Mr Perkins, editor of the "Porto Alegre Times," returns to that city on Sunday: we regret, not to enjoy his society for some days longer. He has first seat to London, for publication, his "Travels in South Africa," and Rio San Francisco to Valparaiso, including most of the Latin Republics

Mr Clay, consul, is rather unlucky in his auctions. The quinta could not be sold, owing to the mortgages; his house in calle Piedad was rose, yesterday, to 30,000 dols. and withdrawn by the sum of 400,000 dols imp. A private offer of 60,000 more was refused, and the property is still unsold, the sire having cost, some years ago, 11,000 silver dollars

Some of the Entre Rian deputies have returned to understand on account of absence. It is thought Urquiza will decline re-election in March, should even his admirers wish to vote into the Constitution for this purpose: he has sole ambition now seems to be retirement, and, hap, however, good care to protect himself from private rivals, or hot-headed youths of Buenos Ayres.

We have heard a new version of the Gowland case, whereby it would appear that Messrs Cuyas and Urquiza acted perfectly right. It is said that Mr. Gowland promised a guaranteed which he could not effect, and the vessel being ordered off, his delays gave him an ultimatum of 15 days, which time he did not appear, an l Urquiza then gave 500 doubloons more and bought the estancia. Let us give the devil his due.

The early departure of the French packet (26th) instead of being on the 30th, as announced in our last, will merely we were at times enabled to answer the English mail, by a supplement to the "Standard," but now this will be impossible. Montevideo has a great laugh at us, being just in time with both packets.

The number of small shopkeeping sold off weekly, by the Bankrupt Court (Tribunal de Commerce) is an alarming proof of the widespread ruin caused by our paper currency. The great fluctua tions in specie, 1 per cent daily, coupled with such heavy interest as 12 per cent, oblige people either to withdraw their business to save, or else carry on, at dangerous rates.

The Triton, H B M. war steamer, besides the Admiral, has brought up eleven English officers on a visit to this city. We remark that the surgeons of war vessels on this station are of the British School of Medicine. We hope the defenders of our wooden walls will enjoy themselves in Buenos Ayres, and beg to offer them a carte blanche to the Standard Office, No. 6, at their service, every night of representation. Four seats at their disposal.

The Hop press is steadily raising its price from item on our premises, and will continue operations on Monday. We extend in stating that it weighed a ton, and is worked by steam, that weight. It is not worked by steam, though cal ric power may at any time be applied to it.

The Parana Banana Jam comes into fa on next Friday. The Compagnie, from London, with 100,000 of type, iron frames, and 500 reams of paper for the Standard, arrives per ship Negra. We fear we shall have the honor of being the very first victims of Dr. Sirsaffold's folly.

Up to whether this week has been unusually fine and mild. This is good for the sheep farmers, but there is evidently moisture in the atmosphere, and the Rio Juaggib and Daavet's barometer, we predict some heavy rain storms before the festival of Santa Rosa.

We understand that a sum of two millions paper dollars will be burnt next week at the Bank: one of the Directors always steals by to prevent bankers go from picking up a stray bluebill.

Don Tomas Peñaloza, the good genius of the Cordoba revolution, is at present in the city, and the sincere friend to Humanity, and wish every Argentine were animated with a similar spirit.

The neighbors of San Nicolas have had a great dispute a out the Contribucion Directa or property tax. It seems the valuators set an exorbitant rate on the lots, and the owners of hitentors who were called in could not agree. In this dilemma Government ordered Messrs. J. Kennedy and H. Lumb, two of the principal owners, these gentlemen having gained a good reputation in their estimates of Concepcion and Barracas.

It is truthful to learn that the Pasco Public station of the Northern railway was broken into by burglars, on Thursday night, and the sum of 700 dollars stolen. The theft was done within 30 yards of the Headpolice office, and yet nothing was known, no arrests were made.

The mail from Montevideo to Higuerites is something more than tardy, and President Berro, mouthful of Flores and Lic. Juan Carlos Gomez.

Mr. Rumbull, of the Great Southern Railway, left this city, as we are informed, yesterday, to undertake the duties of Superintendent of Bonaerense.

Mr. John Downey, native of Wexford, would do well to let us know his whereabouts, or send us his address to prevent from that county his sent a sum of money for him. These frien-sure-trouve, like John Peel, are generally fond of the fair Miss for Miss da pas la loa no tienen dientes.

We publish a remarkable letter from Paysandu, as we suppose entire confusion to any political party, and no anxious our readers should know both sides, to judge for themselves. That we at times differ from the Ex. Administration, is irresistibly true; but our friends must remember the sublime caution of our immortal Sancho, "Look before you leap." All we want is a fair play for every one, and for ourselves.

FOUR MURDERERS ARRESTED

Villa de Mercedes, August 3.

My presence here to-day was taken advantage of to act as interpreter, for the widow of one of the murdered Kirby's, in Lomas lately. She and another young woman named Colter identified the murderer amongst seven Gaucho or eight prisoners: also the weapons, &c., of her late husband, the were found on the prisoner's person when arrested. The proof is clear, but the doubts having done the deed, and that won the prendas at a game of

All this must be sifted up yet. A subscription was raised here yesterday for the man who arrested the murderer: last night 1800 dollars were paid to him as one day's collection. I presume you have seen something of this occurrence already in the city papers. I send lately a few lines about it to the "Standard." Murders are frequent here just now; you must have heard of a Frenchman having been murdered by his poon not very long since, but (the poon) has confessed his guilt: he is at present in Buenos Ayres, but as is expected back here soon to be executed in this town, as his trial is fixed on the list for despatch. It is to be hoped the execution will soon take place, in order by his example to deter the other villians of this Partido, now notorious for the crime of murder. Only listen to what soldiers and take now. Last Saturday at noon Kirby's and Devere's murderer was brought here in irons: same day at five o'clock another prisoner was brought for killing a man at St. Monez estancia (fighting with knives). To day a boy of fifteen's brought in orange with having killed a man, because he saw him put 500 dollars in his pocket! What world! The particulars of these last two I don't know yet, but the last: I was present when the Juez received the affair about the boy, but could not see him as I was engaged at the time with the Escribano in entering From what I have said you will say with me that the Frenchman's murderer ought to be executed at once. A Spaniard here remarked to me "We must get rid of these pillos," a consumation highly necessary say I, encase we are to be any value as new pilgrims worth your knowing secure you shall hear from me about it in my rambles I have noticed the camps hold out well here—better than I have seen them for many frequent years. Sheep are trying the best camps, wither sheep are fat, and capones sell here at 30 Pyts. Three leagues from the south, and about 4 from here, people are dying for water, I am told so, and my informant is a confidential friend. Here water abounds: there are several arroyos and I know a well in that position where altho' the "Handbook" says to the contrary not withstanding. I have not seen that the Bill of Parcels creek is dried up. Information here, but when Sabastopol fell, my eyes then there was a flare up

STANDARD IMPARTIALITY.

Paisandu, August 5th, 1863.

Dear Sirs—I have just received the "Standard" of the 1st inst. and looking for the item of news how you can blame the Tribuna for publishing Flores' triumph, when you a day or two after publish a triumph of Lamas, not only in English but also in Spanish

Do, pray gentlemen, be a little more consistent. You do not take a part in politics, at same time condemn the Government, true or false, and give no credit to what is said of Flores.

Flores has not been defeated as stated, but has succeeded at once with his 96 infantry the rancho and corral where Colonel Freitas and Gomez, 400 men, and his horses were sleeping. Just at the moment of the treacherous thrusts and the greater part were so murdered.

Colonel Caraballo with 400 men plunged Flores into the river, and he swam across the upset Lamas' division at 1200. Flores and his division was not in the battle, and if they now fell it was because Caraballo knew not how to use his victory. Flores is not a man to be defeated by a sou pil mass. I have not time nor patience to write about this affair, but when you reads Flores reports in the Tribuna you will see a spoken of here as a Blanco journal—a little caution and a little discreet on.

Excuse me in thus writing to you, but I am sorry to see your paper taking such a one sided view of things. Be assured you do not gain respect or friends by it. As a friend to nothing new—the authorities fortifying the town, and afraid to send even a parcel by mail—such is the panic caused by this out—such is the panic caused by Flores.

This is merely meant as a hint to you, as I like the rest of your country-men, would like to see the "Standard" prosper, and stand aloof from party strife in this country.

LOCAL EVENTS.

NICE BUSINESS.—A clerk of the Treasury Office has cleared out, owing the trifle of $900,000, according to rumour.

MILORD.—We perceive that a milord is offered for sale in the Tribuna. We hear Forster thinks of buying it.

THE CARTMEN.—Owing to the new municipal arrangements respecting carts, the proprietors of these city conveyances have come out with a long protest.

THE SOUTH.—We regret to say that the South Campos are in a frightful condition. Horses are to be had for almost every one travels on foot. Bullocks are gone long since, beef is nowhere to be found, and the few animals which are killed for consumption cross poor that they are almost unfit to eat. Cardoso, Chascomus, Ranchos, and Maz lena, are the places which suffer most

ENTRE RIOS.—The Revolution is all a sham, although the "Nacional" says that the officers are gathering their men at Cala, a the row may be expected at any moment

GREAT FUNERAL.—Yesterday one of the largest funeral processions that we remember in this city for many years, took place at the late residence of Mr J. alsore, deceased, in Calle Peru.

STREET ARRESTS.—We understand that Gelly and Obes, whom take the German's case in hand Our article has been translated by the indefatigable Mr Le Long, and the Minister of War has expressed his fir a determination to punish the officer for firing to carry firearms in the streets, for outraging God's law by shooting a German, and military discipline, by committing awe instead of standing his ground when called upon to stand, by the Irish am

REVOLUTIONS.—We understand a society of young men is being formed in this city, with the object of scrutinizing the particulars and Pts causes of all future revolutions, in order to be able to inform the public of those which merit support from those which should be put down. This society will be of the greatest use, as it will prevent in the way things are going on we shall have fourteen revolutions in the fourteen provinces before long.

BOLA.—That evening colleague, the 'Nacional,' states that 40,000 to 50,000 ounces are exported every month from Brazil. His est we think who expect not, and they shall not be disappointed.

AGROUND.—The Pampero is aground in front of Martin Garcia, at present with Henri Lamas, and is waiting for water to get off.

NEGRETTES.—We understand that Mr. Bunge is at present importing a superior quantity of Negrette rams and sheep. A subscriber tells us that they are for sale on a certain part of a many which is renowned for the excellence of its sheep.

GREAT BARGAIN.—An extraordinary square league of land near the Villa de Salto is offered very cheap, as the owner is leaving the camp.

GRAVE DISPUTE.—The Juez de Paz of Moron has sent in his resignation: the townspeople have sent in a petition to saying Government not to receive it.—The Judge refuses point blank to eat any longer, and the town will admit no one but him.

MISCELANY.

THE POEM AND GARIBALDI—A Vienna letter of the 22d inst. contains the following—"We learn from Warsaw that the Soviet National Committee has published a poetical letter from Garibaldi to aid in fighting for Polish independance. The reason given for this decision is, that the committee has received from the Italian general no more attitude of a neighbouring Power [Austria] that they did not wish to show the least hostile intention against it, such an ought is shared by their gaining over to the Polish cause men whose names were connected with certain recent European events.

DANISH BRIDAL GIFTS TO THE PRINCESS OF WALES—The following are the bridal gifts prepared for the future Queen of England by the people of the Copenhagen subscription, viz—A copy of Thorwaldsen's Hebe; a silver tea service by Hansen, Bark, by Kjoercoeur, and a view taken from Copenhagen Koibro, by Hansen. The presents which could not be got ready for the marriage day were exhibited for a few days, and are now about to be sent over to England for presentation to the Princess. Each article is accompanied by a congratulatory letter written in name of a large circle of Danish men and women of all ages and conditions.

THE DEPORTATION OF "REBELS"—The Government has been driven at last to the policy of deportation of rebels from Missouri. One day last week a steamer left St Louis for the South, having on board about forty rebel prisoners who had been taken from that city, and condemned to make their abode in the Confederacy till the end of the war. If they return to the North, they will be liable to be treated as spies under the military law. We recognise in the published list the names of citizens who have been distinguished in times past by the confidence of the general government and by the general respect of the community in which they have lived.

THE Salford Town Council, on Wednesday, adopted a memorial to Government in favour of carrying out public executions within the walls of a prison.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFEBOAT INSTITUTION.—At a meeting of this institution, held at the house, Johnsstreet, Adelphi, London, the silver medal of the Institution, and a copy of its vote on parchment, were voted to Mr C. Fenton, Inspecting Chief Officer of Coastguard at Faversham, and to Mr Alexander Forbes, shipbuilder, of Peterhead: and the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, to W J Parsons, A Gray, J Simmons, and 4/6 to them and to two other coastguardmen, in testimony of their gallant conduct in rescuing, at considerable risk of life, eleven out of fourteen of the crew of a ship supposed to be the Genoa, of Liverpool, which, during a very heavy gale of wind and high surf, was wrecked some time since on Hornsey Brigg Rocks, near Peterhead. This was reported to have been a very gallant service, and that Mr Benison, Mr Forbes, and the coastguardmen in the last exerted themselves most nobly on the occasion.

The Morning Herald's Paris correspondent speaks of the resignation of M. de Persigny as highly probable.

Mr. Saville, the owner of The Ranger, who carried off the Grand Prize at the late races, has given 10,000l. for the benefit of the poor of Paris.

A newspaper in the English language is now published in Rio de Janeiro. Its title is the 'Rio Mail.'

One of the most successful undertakings in France is the Garden of Acclimatisation in the Bois de Boulogne. In two years it has had 532,052 visitors, and has taken at the gates 388,1247, which minute have produced been sold to the amount of 11,.6661.

Of the 727 students matriculated at the Wesaw University during the present half-year, 317 are children of Warsaw, and attend the colleges. The 406 absentees have by degrees made their way to the insurgent camps, and it is stated that 102 of them have been killed.

The Libertad, from Montevideo, is due to-morrow (Saturday) morning, and the Fawn from Rosario.

We hear that the proposed rate to be fixed by the legislature for ounces is $938 to come in force on 1st Jan. 1865.

There is an uneasy feeling amongst our capitalists as to the present state of the money market, which instead of diminishing, is on the increase. There are few amongst us who can comprehend the causes which give rise to these monetary disturbances, and as one very important circumstance is overlooked—namely, the great want of confidence in the National Finances Ministers and even in Congress, many experienced foreigners say that if a bill was introduced in Congress to-morrow, for the purpose of abolishing all import duties, and adding them on to our imports, "our voting machines" would pass it. It is this sense of utter insecurity from such legislation, on the one hand, and the scandalous revolutionary principles promulgated by some of the city papers on the other, that leaves us this day as we are, from the wealthy property holders down to the struggling unemployed. All hoard up their gain, give or little. Ounces, though artificially cheaper, are not more numerous in the market than when selling at 432. I reckon the currency, all sorts o crimes have been intruded upon public notice, but we say emphatically that not one of them is true, by their acts, have put the confidence, and the paper money will find its own level. The scandalous effort of Dr Seward to blind the public, respecting his repentant measures on the coal tax, is only on a par with the infamous stories which are at present in circulation concerning the floating debt of the nation and the minister.

We confess we feel humiliated over the deed of transactions more becoming a Sharlock than a minister, and regret the great room which the ministry by his acts, leaves for such stories

If the creditors of the nation were assembled together in the Plaza, they would outnumber Pamero and Saades' army combined. In a country where one man with two followers can create a revolution, and has done so, how dangerous is it not for the peace of the country to have such a phalanx of interest enemies, who ask but their rights, and know too well how to enforce them. If money is scarce, nobody entirely no business is doing, is it not because no one wishes to lend? Money once out, can with the greatest difficulty be got in. Why? Because the minister sets the example. Because there are a set of shavers, who in order to purchase the Government vouchers, at a frightful discount, circulate all sorts o stories about the determination of the Government and Congress never to acknowledge a debt, which, if not paid, will yet come terrible trouble and utter ruin to the whole country

If every square inch of public land had to be sold—if the native forests of the provinces have to be cut down or mortgaged—if the Ministers and even the President have to go without their salaries to keep up the credit of this loan to be done to liquidate the national debt, the Minister who, rather than adopt such measures, embraces repudiation, will be hurled from the office which he disgraces.

But no such extreme measures are necessary. The national revenue is more than sufficient to defray the interest of the foreign debt funded and receive bonds bearing 6 p% interest in payment. Even this the minister refuses, knowingly, as has been proved, when it shall become our duty to publish to the world the motives which must guard this reputation.
